5 Nativity Scene

The local traditions of creatively mounting the nativity scene can be admired here, where twelve life-sized polychromatic carved figures, represent the birth of Baby Jesus. Visible from various angles, whilst inserted in a setting surrounded by trees and a wide range of locally produced flowers and plants, a small roofed house welcomes the family from Nazareth.

2 Ethnographic Village

Various traditions of the Madeiran Culture, such as gastronomy, handicrafts and folklore, are depicted live in the Ethnographic Village to be found in Largo da Restauração. Here, whilst tasting the typical wheat soup and the traditional Bolo do Caco, one can admire the two types of the traditional Madeiran nativity scenes on exhibitions: the nativity scene which replicates our humanized and natural landscape, including its vegetation, terraces, creeks, houses and sheds; as well as the staircase nativity scene, consisting of a small altar, in the form of steps, featuring Baby Jesus at the top.

In the early hours of the days, from the 15th to the 23rd of December, a novena called Missas do Parto, or the Childbirth masses, is celebrated, marking the beginning of the religious Christmas celebrations, and one of the most genuine traditions of the Madeiran Christmas period. During the religious ceremony, churchgoers sing popular verses in honour of the Mother of God and Baby Jesus. At the end of the ceremony, the churchyards are the setting of the season's regional and traditional music, as well as tastings of the most diverse Christmas delicacies such as cocoa, chicken soup, carne vinha d'alhos (meat marinated in wine and garlic), biscuits and liqueurs.

AND STILL...

Nativity scenes around the island

A nativity scene is a spontaneous creation which represents the birth of Jesus Christ, and has become an icon of Christmas in Madeira. While some maintain this tradition, others modernize it. Natural material is usually used, or any other which is available, in the setting up of the traditional lapinha, in the form of a staircase, or the nativity scene, using paper imitating a rocky grotto, yet all different as they result from the creativity of each creator, influenced by the environment where they live.

Around the island, there are nativity scenes which are true works of art and open to the public for visits.

For more information, visit the website: visitmadeira.com at Christmas and New Year Festivities

Christmas at the Museums

There are magnificent examples of paintings and portable altarpieces of Flemish origin, nativity boxes, polychrome clay figure collections, Baby Jesus figures, staircase nativity scenes and recreations of traditional nativity scenes, in Madeira's Museums.

Thus, itineraries to visit the nativity scenes are available in some of Funchal's Museums (Sacred Art Museum, Frederico de Freitas House-Museum, Quinta das Cruzes Museum and Universe of Memories – João Carlos Abreu), as well as the Madeira Ethnographic Museum, in Ribeira Brava, which features "Lapinha do Caseiro", one of the most iconic nativity scenes on the Island. Admissions are free.

Baltazar Dias Municipal Theatre

The 8th edition of this exhibition, which has been inspiring residents and visitors to set the table for Christmas (A Festa), will take place in the Nobel Hall of the Baltazar Dias Municipal Theatre, where you can admire the creations of 6 hotels and 2 associations, which accepted the challenge of presenting "their" Christmas table, where the key element is Madeira Embroidery. This is an exhibition by Bordal in co-production with the Municipality of Funchal.

It will be open every day to the public, from the 13th of December to the 4th of January 2024, except for 24, 25, 26, 31 December 2023 and 1 January 2024.
